MANDHIRA, VIOLINIST

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

At 27, classical violinist Mandhira was diagnosed with thyroid cancer. We supported her financially so that she could take a complete break to recover, as we know that musicians often return to work too soon after illness.

This is just one of thousands of stories of musicians we have helped. Many have gone on to have outstanding careers which might never have happened without support from Help Musicians UK.

JOIN THE CIRCLE

If you are passionate about investing in the future of music then join the Love Music:Help Musicians Circle and become part of an exclusive group of musicians' benefactors. You can join by setting up a regular gift or making a donation of £2,500 or more.

LOVE MUSIC HELP MUSICIANS

Music is a wonderful gift, but being a musician can be a tough and precarious career. It takes a huge amount of training and practice and people often face periods without work.

Accident or illness can have devastating effect, often requiring specialist treatment. Then come the challenges of retirement and later life, for which it's hard to plan ahead.

Help Musicians UK is the leading charity in the UK for professional musicians of all genres, from starting out through to retirement.

Since 1921, we've been a vital lifeline for thousands of musicians, helping them start a career, overcome a crisis, respond to illness and injury, or cope in retirement and later life.

In 2013 we invested over £2.5 million in helping musicians in need. You can help us help musicians by joining our Love Music:Help Musicians Circle.
